Our Alchemy

A perfect union of nature and science is the alchemy of Mayella™

For beautiful skin we must first serve the connection between the inner and outer functions of our being. Nutritionally Empowered Superfood blends and Botanical Herbal Tisanes for the inner being. Natural Skincare with the bio-active benefits of botanicals, phytonutrients and aromatherapy pure essential oils for the outer being.

Holding a clear vision, Mayella™ is specifically formulated by us, to create pure unadulterated bioactive concentrates. While having the integrity of ethical manufacturing as the centerfold of our formulation process. Manufactured by family owned Probioskin.com in Miami on the beautiful Gold Coast, Queensland, Australia.

Our Quality

Probioskin Pty Ltd search the global village for the worlds finest quality authentic ingredients. Sourced from fertile lands that provide the highest nutritional value available, utilising organic, sustainable and fair trade farming and manufacturing processes. We pride ourselves on formulating unadulterated handcrafted products containing no fillers, bulking agents, GMO, palm oil, synthetics, harmful chemicals, artificial flavours, colours or fragrances. All of our products are vegan, proudly being animal cruelty free, non-allergenic and free from toxic chemicals.

Our Ambassador

Australian model, actress and probioskin.com™ ambassador Jessica Green is the beautiful face of Mayella™.

Wholly embracing our philosophy "love and nourish your inner world and your outer world will shine", Jessica naturally radiates a healthy spirit, nourished body, beautiful skin, hair and happiness.

The simplicity of a daily Mayella routine compliments and balances the busy and public lifestyle she leads, giving Jessica confidence and the guarantee of overall wellness and a flawless complexion.
